Celebrating One Year!
JONI LAMB

After 26 years at my job, I had earned numerous awards but was passed over for every promotion. I had given up all hope of ever being promoted. Early last year I started sowing into Daystar to support Israel. Then out of nowhere last month I was pursued by the State of Ohio for a Supervisory role in my field! Only God could open that door, but He did it by my sewing into Daystar and being faithful to Israel.

UNLOCKING THE MYSTERIES OF PROPHECY

with Joseph Z

Can you share with us the inspiration behind writing Demystifying the Prophetic and what motivated you to delve into this topic?

JZ: From a very young age, I have had highly prophetic and supernatural encounters. As a result, I began to study and search for answers to these occurrences. What started at the age of 9, hearing my name called by an audible Voice led to training people in the prophetic and holding prophetic meetings for the past 25 years worldwide. In 2020, when the prophetic experienced a great deal of confusion, it became clear that helpful clarification was needed. Much of the controversy from 2020 and after was another catalyst for writing Demystifying the Prophetic. This book was not written to criticize but rather to be constructive, to build the prophetic in a healthy way while still addressing some of the issues that have caused confusion.

This book is not a typical book on prophecy. It was important to me that various less-covered yet vital topics be explored for clarity within the scope of prophetic operation. These include trances to déjà vu, strange happenings, angelic encounters, sensory and empathetic experiences, visions, and better prediction protocols. All this is to make the prophetic less sensationalized, more results-based with humility, and something the body of Christ should embrace rather than reject, but through biblical order and on a good foundation.

End-Time prophecy often sparks curiosity and speculation. What approach do you take to navigate this complex topic while staying grounded in biblical truth?

JZ: End-time prophecy is a very serious subject, yet I consider that all the scholars of Jesus' day didn't properly interpret His coming the first time. It is possible no one has the complete interpretation down perfectly regarding His second coming, either. My approach is to stand on the things I understand and can grasp in the Word of God. I often draw out a helpful eschatological timeline on a whiteboard explaining how I believe the Bible speaks regarding end-time events that are going to happen.

We should trust the Lord and keep doing what we do firmly; knowing that rather than putting trust in the things we do not understand, and that are hotly debated.

When it comes to predictions regarding the return of Jesus or any end-time event, it is essential to stand on the written Word of God and stay far away from date predictions.

What are some common misconceptions about prophecy that you often hear, and how would you respond to them?

JZ: If a prophetic word spoken by a prophet doesn't happen, some automatically label that individual a false prophet. In the Old Testament, this was true. However, in the New Testament, we see an instance of the Prophet Agabus telling Paul that he would be bound by the Jews, but instead, the Romans bound him. Under strict examination, that would be considered an inaccuracy. This prophetic word may not have been called out in the New Testament because we all have the Holy Spirit, and prophetic words today are an interpretation, not a direct translation. We interpret what we hear from the Holy Spirit and the Word of God.

Another common misconception is that some treat prophecy as if it is mainly for telling the future or prediction when there is a wider spectrum to prophecy than only prediction.

Sometimes, interpretation involves time and realizing that two prophetic voices can speak. They seem at odds, but given time and interpretation, they may be seeing an issue from two different vantage points.

How can Christians discern between genuine prophetic messages and misleading or false claims?

JZ: Knowing His Voice personally comes from spending time in the Bible, praying, and being calm. Additionally, it is by their fruits that you will know them. Sometimes, it is a matter of allowing time to prove what is being claimed. If prophetic stories are sensational experience after sensational experience, it is essential not to become fixated on that, as the Bible warns us about cunningly devised fables. Matthew 24 warns us about false prophets that would come and deceive many. One of the meanings of deception isn't necessarily that they will lose their salvation but rather that the deceived will wander. Deception can simply cause believers to wander. It is important to know you are hearing accurately, or you will waste precious time that should be applied to your God assignment.

What is the Lord speaking to you in this season?

JZ: We are indeed in the days of Noah, and the Lord is saying to His Church and the world, "Wake up!"

During this time, there is a massive call to the Sons of Issachar (1 Chronicles 12:32). Those who understand the times, know what to do about the times, and are with the right tribe.

These know their people and operate with the jurisdiction they are anointed for. This will increase as more oaks of righteousness are leaving, graduating to heaven, and some are changing or being retrofitted—because the redwoods are coming. Oaks represent the foundation layers and stalwarts of movements. This isn't a word about age. It is a word about assignment. The oaks represent Isaiah 61:3, "The planting of the Lord for the display of His splendor." The redwoods represent a powerful network of high and mighty trees that will stand together in a united root system, event branch system. However, without the input of the mighty originators or oaks, no redwood tree will ever reach its full potential because it will rot at the top of its monumental height. An additional warning for redwoods is to consider that when a redwood tree falls, its impact on the ground is so powerful it can be measured on the Richter scale. This means that in this new move of high and united redwoods, they must learn to avoid rotting at the top of their success and avoid an earth-shaking fall. Some Oaks are leaving for heaven, and some are transitioning to foster the redwoods. Some of these fivefold oaks are merging with the redwoods—they are red oaks. Fathers, mothers, and leaders from former movements with experience will usher in, bridge the gap, and tend to the health and well-being of the redwoods as they take their place. This is a prophetic word, and I believe it is beginning to manifest.

ADORE

A NIGHT OF WORSHIP WITH JONI LAMB

Held for the first time ever in Toronto, Canada, Adore: A Night of Worship with Joni Lamb was a night to remember! We kicked off the event with a dynamic time of worship led by Joni and the Daystar Singers before Dr. Doug Weiss delivered a compelling Gospel presentation, stirring souls towards faith. We were also blessed with special ministry from Dr. Phil Nordin, Pastor Tom Melnichuk, and Dr. Charles McVety.

With hundreds gathered at the Canada Event Centre, the atmosphere was charged with anticipation. Thank you to our Daystar family in Canada for making this inaugural event so special. It was an honor to exalt the name of Jesus over Canada together!

Hello, Daystar family!

As we step into the month of June, I am filled with a sense of joy and anticipation for all that God has in store for us. The summer season is now in full swing, a time bursting with life and joy, reminding us of the abundant blessings found in Jesus.

In the midst of this season of growth and renewal, I'm reminded of the words of Jesus in John 10:10, where He declares, "I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full." So we can move forward with gratitude and joy, knowing that He has designed this season for us to experience His goodness in abundance.

This month holds special significance for me as it marks the one-year anniversary of my marriage to Dr. Doug Weiss. I am deeply grateful to God for His faithfulness in bringing Doug into my life. Together, we embark on this journey of serving the Lord, united in His love and purpose. As we celebrate this milestone, we are filled with excitement for the future and all that God has in store for us.

I am also thrilled to share some exciting updates from Daystar! Our reach continues to expand as we launch in Uganda and parts of East Africa on Kampala Siti Cable, branded as "Simba TV," reaching 5 million homes! Additionally, we have acquired TV Stations KNLA and KNET in the Los Angeles market, reaching almost 5 million homes and over 14 million people! Daystar Television Network is now carried on KNET Channel 25.1, while Daystar Español is on KNLA Channel 20.1, both in HD. These expansions allow us to bring the message of hope and redemption to even more hearts across the globe.

None of these achievements would be possible without your steadfast support and prayers. Your partnership enables us to continue spreading the love of Jesus to every corner of the earth, impacting lives and transforming hearts. Thank you for standing with us on this incredible journey. May the Lord's blessings overflow in your lives abundantly as you continue serving Him!

Yours for Christian Television,

Joni Lamb

I called Daystar for prayer this weekend after a mass was found in my breast. The Prayer Partner and I prayed that they would not find that mass on my next visit. Praise God, He did this miracle for me! Thank You, Jesus! And thank you to the wonderful prayer warriors at Daystar!

Last week I called Daystar to request prayer for our daughter who had liver decompensation and low survival rate. Today, she visited her specialist and he was amazed that she is no longer in the danger zone! We give God all the Glory due His name for answered prayers.
